Hyge
Gets Them All

Here are only four of the numerous kinds of parasites that live on domestic animals and reduce the owners' profits. HYGENO kills these and all others. Cures itch, mange and other skin diseases. Destroys germs and foul odors. Keeps flies away. It is a wonderful cool tar disinfectant, and in addition to being a stock dip it has numerous household uses.

We buy in quantities and our prices will please you.

Safety and Convenience.

"Safety" is the password in transferring money—"convenience" is also of equal importance. You have both safety and convenience in money matters when you pay by check. A checking account is the simplest method for everyone—for you—to employ in financial affairs, because you have a complete record of every transaction. We welcome small accounts. All accounts—large and small—receive the same careful attention.

Senate Acts on Appointment of Burt D. Cady Postmaster of Port Huron.

Word from Washington announces that the Senate on Wednesday evening, August 4th, confirmed the nomination of Burton D. Cady to be postmaster at Port Huron, Mich., vice Loren A. Sherman, whose resignation will take effect next December.

Mr. Cady has been a party worker ever since he became of age and has made a success of whatever he tackled. His appointment will give general satisfaction and he will make a popular postmaster, one who will give the office strictest attention.

Macaulay-Dudley.

Mr. Manley J. Dudley and Miss Isabelle Macaulay were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Macaulay, Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the presence of their immediate relatives. Rev. J. Turner performed the ceremony.

In carrying out the beautiful ring service, the wedding march and other formalities were dispensed with, and with refreshing informality the bride and groom welcomed their guests, and at the appointed hour stood before a bank of ferns and flowers arranged in the parlor bay window and gave their assent to the usual interrogations. They were attended by Jean Macaulay, niece of the bride, and Jennie Dudley, daughter of the groom, the former acting as ring bearer and the latter as flower girl. Each of the party carried a bunch of sweet peas.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white batiste trimmed with German val lace. She was the recipient of many beautiful gifts from individual friends, the Five Hundred Club and the Congregational church and Sunday school.

The bride is one of Armada's most popular ladies, a singer of more than local reputation, and a favorite in social and society circles.

The groom is one of our substantial business men, a member of the firm of Dudley Bros., and a much esteemed and highly respected citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley left in the evening for a trip around the lakes, and on their return will occupy the home of the groom on First street—Armada Graphic.

Cards of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Denison desire to thank the many friends who were so kind in offering assistance and sympathy during the short sickness and after the death of their son Ralph. They appreciate all that was done for them in their hour of bereavement.

We desire through the columns of the Expressor to express our gratitude for the many acts of kindness shown by friends and neighbors during the sickness and after the death of wife and mother. We also especially thank the following ladies who did so much to relieve the suffering of our deceased wife and mother during her long siege of sickness:—Mrs. Henry Pearce, Mrs. Jas. Sterling, Mrs. H. Steinburg, Mrs. Helen Reid, Mrs. John Henry, Mrs. Hiram Brown, Mrs. Caswell, Mrs. C. G. Richardson and Mrs. Mary M. Bowles. Anson Somers and family.
